(Sept 2008) The American Woman's Society of CPAs has just announced the recipient of the AWSCPA – Becker CPA Review National Scholarship award for 2008. Sarah M. Weir of Louisville, Kentucky was selected to receive the award of a complete CPA review course provided by Becker CPA Review and valued at $2,995.00.

Ms. Weir received her Bachelor's in Business Administration with a Finance and Economics minor from the University of Kentucky in 2004 and expects to receive her Certificate of Accounting from the University of Louisville in December of this year.

She plans to then pursue her Certification in Public Accounting. Sarah is carrying a 3.40 GPA while working forty hours a week to pay for school and was named Beta Alpha Psi Outstanding New Member for Spring 2008.

“We had an outstanding selection of candidates to choose from, said Mary Cheaney, CPA, AWSCPA National President, and it was difficult to select only one. I wish we would have been able to give them all an award.”
